

1. If life is like a wed - ding feast And
 2. If life is like a wed - ding feast And
 3. And God is mak - ing life a feast, Em - we are cast as guests, Then it is trag - ic we are cast as hosts, Then it is lim - it - brac - ing us as guests So that with self - for - not to know The life God man - i - fests. ing to list The ones we like the most get - ting grace We gath - er and are blessed Dis - tract - ed by ap - pear - anc - es, Se - And leave a - part, out - side, un - known, Un - To taste and know that God is good And duced by praise or place, If we re - main out - count - ed oth - er souls, When love sug - gests there spreads the ta - ble wide, So wide we know to side our - selves We miss this mo - ment's grace. is no feast Till all the parts are whole.

 say with God, Come, all my friends, in - side.
