PSALM 23 My Shepherd is the Lord

My shep-herd is the Lord, noth-ing in-deed shall I want.

Text: Psalm 23; Joseph Gelineau
Music: Joseph Gelineau
© 1963, The Grail, GIA Publications, Inc., agent

- Lord, you are my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want. Fresh and green are the pastures where you give me repose. Near restful water you lead me, to revive my drooping spirit.
- You guide me along the right path; You are true to your name. If I should walk in the valley of darkness no evil would I fear. You are there with your crook and your staff; with these you give me comfort.
- You have prepared a banquet for me in the sight of my foes. My head you have anointed with oil, my cup is over flowing.
- Surely goodness and kindness shall follow me all the days of my life. In the Lord's own house shall I dwell forever and ever.

Gospel
Homily
Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Day of the Dead Altar - Ofrenda

Throughout the month of November, altars in remembrance of our beloved dead will be displayed in both of our parish churches. The “Día de los Muertos” altar, or “ofrenda”, is a traditional way to honor those who have gone before us, expressing love and remembrance through photos, flowers, candles, and other meaningful items.

Starting this weekend, and throughout the month of November, Parishioners are invited to bring a photo or small memento of a deceased loved one to place on the altar as we pray together for all the faithful departed.

Hymn On Eagles Wings

- You who dwell in the shelter of the Lord, who abide in his shadow for life, say to the Lord: “My refuge, my rock in whom I trust!”

And he will raise you up on ea - gle's wings, bear you on the breath of dawn, make you to shine like the sun, and hold you in the palm of his hand.

Text: Psalm 91; Michael Joncas, b. 1951
Music: Michael Joncas, © 1979, OCP Publications.

- The snare of the fowler will never capture you, and famine will bring you no fear: under his wings your refuge, his faithfulness your shield.
- You need not fear the terror of the night, nor the arrow that flies by day; though thousands fall about you, near you it shall not come.
- For to his angels he's given a command to guard you in all of your ways; upon their hands they will bear you up, lest you dash your foot against a stone.

Coda:

And hold you, hold you in the palm of his hand.
