The Lord comes to rule the earth with jus - tice.

Sing praise to the LORD with the harp, sing joyfully before the King, the LORD. R.

Let the sea and what fills it resound,

GOSPEL

CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

UNIVERSAL PRAYER

Day of the Dead Altar - Ofrenda

Throughout the month of November, altars in remembrance of our beloved dead will be displayed in both of our parish churches. The "Día de los Muertos" altar, or "ofrenda", is a traditional way to honor those who have gone before us, expressing love and remembrance through photos, flowers, candles, and other meaningful items.

Throughout the month of November, Parishioners are invited to bring a photo or small memento of a deceased loved one to place on the altar as we pray together for all the faithful departed.
